Birthdate: February 23, 1965

Hometown: New York, New York

Mario Deslauriers began riding as a child at Bromont Equestrian Centre, site of equestrian events for the 1976 Montreal Olympic Games, under the tutelage of his father, Roger Deslauriers. In 1984 at the age of 19, Mario became the first Canadian and the youngest rider to ever win the World Cup Final, a record he still holds today. At the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics, he finished fourth with Aramis following a three-way jump-off for the individual bronze medal.

A two-time Canadian Show Jumping Champion, Mario has represented Canada at every major games event. In 2006, he was a member of the Canadian Team that scored its first victory in the BMO Nations' Cup at Spruce Meadows in Calgary, AB. With an opportunity to ride for an American owner, Mario began competing for the United States in international competition in 2009. Since returning to ride for Canada in 2017, he has since represented his birth country at the 2018 World Equestrian Games in Tryon, NC; the 2019 Pan American Games in Lima, Peru; and the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan, where he was Canada's sole individual.

Married to former U.S. Team member Lisa Tarnopol, Mario and their twins, Jack and Lucy, reside in New York, NY, and Wellington, FL. Mario trains and competes alongside Lucy who, similar to his own career path, is enjoying incredible success at a young age and represented the U.S. at the 2019 Pan American Games.

Birthdate: April 29, 1995

Hometown: Delta, British Columbia

From early beginnings riding a pony at a birthday party to representing Canada on the world stage, Alicia Gadban-Lewis is quickly making a name for herself in show jumping circles. Jim Ifko

Birthplace: Calgary, Alberta

Birthdate: May 5, 1969

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta

Growing up at his family's Paramount Equestrian Centre Ltd., Jim Ifko got an early start to his riding career. He quickly found success with whichever horses happened to be in the field at the time and eventually took on training and coaching as his full-time profession. He credits his father's love of horses and his own passion for the sport of show jumping for getting him to where he is today.

Ifko is currently based at Eventyre Farms outside of Calgary, AB, where he acts as the facilities manager. Owned by fellow grand prix competitor Rachel Cornacchia, the business includes a European-style sport horse breeding program where Ifko's top mount, Un Diamant des Forets, stands at stud. In 2019, Ifko and Un Diamant des Forets made their Canadian Show Jumping Team debut in the €200,000 Longines FEI Jumping Nations Cup™ at CSIO5* Coapexpan, Mexico. The pair has since gone on to enjoy success at major show jumping competitions throughout North America.

Sean Jobin

Birthplace: Mississauga, Ontario

Birthdate: July 25, 1992

Hometown: Toronto, Ontario

Sean Jobin was introduced to riding by his mother and began competing at local shows at a young age. Jobin embarked on his professional career by working for Mike Grinyer where, partnered with Grinyer's Picasso, he contested his first Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) sanctioned event in 2013. After a year spent working with Canadian Olympian Hugh Graham at KingRidge Stables, Jobin became the professional rider for Kathy Dixon at Foxridge Farms Stables based in Ocala, FL, and has been there ever since.

Eric Krawitt

Birthplace: San Francisco, California

Birthdate: December 10, 2004

Hometown: Okotoks, Alberta

As a member of the Anderson show jumping family dynasty, Eric Krawitt seemed destined for the competition arena. His mother, Pan American Games team silver medalist Sandra Anderson, is one of four Anderson siblings, all of whom have represented the Canadian Equestrian Team. Even Eric's older brother, Austin Krawitt, has enjoyed success as a young rider.

Eric got his first taste of success on the international stage while competing at the 2018 North American Youth Championships (NAYC) held at Old Salem Farm in New York. Representing Canada in the Children's division for riders aged 12 to 14, Eric was a member of the gold medal team riding Wellington.

In 2021, he returned to the NAYC, this time held in Traverse City, Michigan, to compete in the Junior division for riders aged 14 to 18, winning a team silver. The following year, he once again competed at the NAYC in Traverse City, this time bringing home a team bronze medal in the Young Riders' division for athletes aged 16 to 21. His partner at the 2021 and 2022 championships was Cactus de Cosniere, a horse he partnered with at the beginning of 2021. The same horse carried him to his first major victory at the five-star level in 2022 when they won the $137,700 1.50m ATB Cup at the CSI5* Spruce Meadows 'National' tournament in Calgary, AB. Based on their success, the pair was named to the Jumping National Team Program for the 2023 season.

Christopher Lowe

Birthplace: Burnaby, British Columbia

Birthdate: August 10, 1983

Hometown: Langley, British Columbia

Riding since the age of 10, Christopher Lowe has steadily climbed through the Canadian show jumping ranks. He represented his home province of British Columbia at the 2000 and 2004 North American Young Riders' Championships. In 2004, he was honoured with British Columbia's Premier's Athletic Award as the Male Equestrian Athlete of the Year.

In 2005, Lowe was the only Canadian to advance to the jump-off in the $200,000 CN Grand Prix held during the Spruce Meadows 'National' Tournament where he placed seventh overall with his long-time partner, Jackpot. Their placing came just two weeks after winning the $35,000 Grand Prix at Thunderbird. Lowe has recently found consistent success at the grand prix level with his partner of five seasons, Cunningham 4. Based on their results, the pair was named to the 2023 National Team Program - Jumping.

Having studied Business Administration with a major in Finance at Simon Fraser University, Lowe is now a portfolio manager at Odlum Brown. He and his wife, Andrea, are based in Langley, BC, and have three children. Balancing a career and family with his show jumping pursuits, Lowe trains with his long-time friend, Tiffany Foster, at her Little Creek Equestrian.

Vanessa Mannix

Birthplace: Calgary, Alberta

Birthdate: April 6, 1989

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta

Born into a horse-loving family, it's no surprise that Vanessa Mannix would follow the same path. Her father, Frederick Mannix, is in the Canadian Polo Hall of Fame and her brothers, Frederick Jr. and Julian, are both highly rated players. While Vanessa also played polo until the age of 10, she was drawn to the thrill of show jumping. Coached by Canadian Olympian Jonathan Asselin as a teenager, Vanessa began working with her current trainer, Ireland's Conor Swail, in 2007 when she moved to Dublin to study at Trinity College.

Vanessa made her Nations' Cup debut in 2016 in Samorin, Slovakia, and was again named to the Canadian Team for the Nations' Cup in Gijon, Spain. In 2017, she won the €73,075 CSI4* Grand Prix in Coapexpan, Mexico, before helping Canada finish second in the following week's Nations' Cup riding Grand Cru. Her next two Nations' Cup appearances came in 2020; she rode Catinka 25 for the Canadian Team at the Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL, while she and Valentino d'Elte competed in Spain in the fall.

For the 2023 season, Vanessa is a returning member of the Show Plus Northern Lights team, riding alongside her fellow Canadians in Major League Show Jumping. She also runs Wildrose Showjumping, which includes a breeding operation, in the west of Ireland.

Rebecca McGoldrick

Birthplace: Toronto, Ontario

Birthdate: May 16, 1990

Hometown: Herwen, The Netherlands

Born in Toronto, Rebecca McGoldrick moved to Hong Kong at the age of five. Growing up in an international city known for its vibrant Thoroughbred racing scene, McGoldrick spent her childhood as the oldest of three children riding former racehorses entering their second careers as school horses.

When it was time for college, McGoldrick headed back to North America and attended Brown University in Rhode Island. Having put riding on the backburner during high school, McGoldrick got back in the saddle as part of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) program. During her final year of studies, Irish show jumping rider Dermott Lennon invited McGoldrick to spend the summer training with him in Northern Ireland. One summer turned into several years of working with the 2002 World Show Jumping Champion. Rebecca is now based in The Netherlands where she breeds sport horses alongside her own competitive pursuits.

Based on her 2022 results with Fanta M, McGoldrick was named to the 2023 Jumping National Team Program. She also has high hopes for Happiness, the latest horse to join her string in 2022.

Amy Millar

Birthplace: Ottawa, Ontario

Birthdate: February 14, 1977

Hometown: Perth, Ontario

As the daughter of 10-time Canadian Olympian Ian Millar, Amy Millar began riding on the family's Millar Brooke Farm in Perth, ON. Training alongside her father and older brother, Jonathon, Amy has proven that show jumping talent runs in the family.

In 1996, Amy entered the grand prix ranks riding Zagal, the same year she won an individual silver medal at the North American Young Riders' Championship. Exactly 20 years later, Amy made her Olympic debut riding Heros as a member of Canada's fourth-placed team at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The pair would go on to capture the 2017 Canadian Show Jumping Championship title at Toronto's Royal Horse Show.

Amy's current top horse is Truman, her partner in helping Canada claim victory in the $600,000 BMO Nations' Cup during the CSIO5* Spruce Meadows 'Masters' tournament in 2021. The pair also represented Canada at the 2022 World Championships in Herning, Denmark, where Canada placed tenth in the Team Final.

A professional trainer at Millar Brooke Farm, Amy holds her Bachelor of Commerce from Toronto's Ryerson University. Married to Brad Jukosky, the couple are parents to Lily (2010) and Alexander (2018).

Hyde Moffatt

Birthplace: Port Hope, Ontario

Birthdate: June 19, 1979

Hometown: Brantford, Ontario

Andrew Hyde Moffatt had an unusual introduction to horses. When he was five years old, a girl at school brought in her horse for show-and-tell and Moffatt was hooked!

Moffatt first entered the grand prix ranks in 2004 riding Ting Tin and steadily improved with each outing, enjoying top ten finishes at several of the biggest horse shows in Canada. It would be the first of many horses that Moffatt produced to the grand prix level for various owners. In 2018, he began riding a string of horses for Ariel Grange's Lothlorien Farm and success soon followed. Based on his results during the 2022 season partnered with Quintin, Moffatt was named to the Jumping National Team Program for the first time.

Well-known for his catch-riding abilities as well as his talent for developing young horses, Moffatt is in demand as both a rider and coach. In addition to his grueling training and show schedule, Moffatt is an avid runner, allowing him to enjoy the sights and sounds of the various locations his competition schedule takes him.

Birthplace: Toronto, Ontario

Birthdate: April 14, 1988

Hometown: Toronto, Ontario

Born in Toronto, Wesley Newlands got her start riding at a stable near her family's summer cottage. As a junior, she trained under Wayne McClellan before making her way south of the border. In 2017, she made her Canadian Team debut in the CSIO3* Nations' Cup of Samorin, Slovakia, riding Wieminka B. Newlands was named to the Jumping National Team Program for the first time in 2023 based on her results with Maestro van het Binnenveld, purchased in 2021 from her former trainer, Ilan Ferder.

First named to the Canadian Equestrian Team in 1990, Underhill is a veteran of Olympic, World Championship, and Pan American Games competition and won a team bronze medal riding Altair at the 1999 Pan American Games. Competing with a large string of quality mounts, she won the €500,000 Rolex Grand Prix of La Baule, France, riding Dieu Merci and helped Canada place 10th in the Team Final at the 2022 World Championships in Herning, Denmark, riding Nikka vd Bisschop. Now riding for the Rein family, Underhill is enjoying her second season as a member of the Rome Gladiators in the Global Champions League.

Sam Walker

Birthplace: Hamilton, Ontario

Birthdate: April 3, 2002

Hometown: Nobleton, Ontario

As the son of professionals Scott and Dee Walker, Sam Walker displayed natural talent from an early age while riding at the family's Forest Hill Training Centre in Caledon, Ontario. In 2018, he topped a starting field of 175 entries riding Waldo to become the fourth Canadian to win the ASPCA Maclay National Championship, considered to be the most prestigious equitation final in the U.S. Less than a week later, he returned home to win the CET Medal National Final at Toronto's Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, having won the Jump Canada Medal Final at The Royal one year earlier.

Sam is also a veteran of three North American Youth Championships (NAYC). In 2018, he won team bronze in the Junior division before moving up to the Young Rider division in 2019 when he led Canada to team gold before claiming the individual silver medal. In 2022, he was a member of the Canadian Young Riders' Team that earned the bronze medal. Also in 2022, at the age of 20, Sam became the youngest winner of the Sun Life Derby at the CSI5* Spruce Meadows 'North American' tournament riding Evita.

Sam made his senior team debut in 2020 as a member of Canadian Show Jumping Team for the $290,000 Longines FEI Jumping Nations Cup™ held at the CSIO5* Palm Beach Masters in Wellington, FL.

Tim Wilks

Birthplace: Isle of Man

Birthdate: January 2, 1995

Hometown: Henley on Thames, England

Tim Wilks grew up on the Isle of Man where his mother's family ran a riding school. In the summer, they would travel to England to compete, basing out of his grandparents' Rosehill estate located in Henley-on-Thames. Eventually, Wilks's parents relocated permanently to Rosehill, and today the family runs a successful training and sales operation, IN Showjumpers, headed by Wilks' mother, Caroline. His younger sister, Anna, the 2015 Junior European Eventing Champion, now focuses solely on show jumping and works alongside Wilks at IN Showjumpers where they have approximately 30 horses in training.

During the four years he spent training with Dutchman Henk Nooran, Wilks competed for Great Britain at the 2012 European Junior Championships where he won a team bronze medal and at the 2016 European Young Riders' Championships. In both of his first two senior Nations' Cup appearances, also in 2016, Wilks jumped double clear riding Quelbora Merze at CSIO3* Lisbon, Spain, and at CSIO5* Falsterbo, Sweden, to lead Great Britain to victory.

Holding dual Canadian and British citizenship, Wilks decided to ride for his father's native country and, in 2019, made his Nations' Cup debut for Canada at CSIO5* La Baule, France. Fittingly, he made his first competitive appearance outside of Europe at the 2019 Spruce Meadows 'Summer Series' in Calgary, AB.

Ian Millar Chef d'Equipe

Birthplace: Halifax, Nova Scotia

Birthdate: January 6, 1947

Hometown: Perth, Ontario

Aptly dubbed 'Captain Canada' by his fans, Ian Millar has ridden in more team competitions than any other Canadian rider. At the 2012 London Olympics, his final Olympic appearance, Millar set a world record by becoming the first athlete in any sport, from any nation, to represent their country in 10 Olympic Games. Millar also achieved his best individual Olympic performance in London with a top 10 finish riding Star Power.

Millar earned 10 medals in 10 Pan American Games appearances, including two individual and two team gold. In 1988 and 1989, Millar and his legendary partner, Big Ben, became the first horse and rider combination to ever win back-to-back World Cup Finals. In 2014, Millar led Canada to victory in the $300,000 BMO Nations' Cup before winning the coveted $1,500,000 CP International at the CSIO5* Spruce Meadows 'Masters' tournament riding Dixon. Remarkably, Millar captured a record 10th Canadian Show Jumping Champion title in 2016, again riding Dixon. In May of 2019, Millar announced his retirement from international team competition and now focuses on the training and development of young horses and riders. In 2023, he took on the role of Equestrian Canada's Technical Advisor, Jumping and acts as chef d'equipe of the Canadian Show Jumping Team.

The most decorated equestrian athlete in Canadian history, Millar is a member of the Order of Canada, the Canadian Sports Hall of Fame, the Ontario Sports Hall of Fame, the Jump Canada Hall of Fame, and is a honorary doctorate of the University of Guelph. Both of his children, Jonathon and Amy, have followed in his footsteps and have represented Canada in major games competition.
