LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Dwayne Brown Studio

Dear fellow equestrians,

The beginning of spring is in the air. The winter circuits in California and Florida are ending and the weather is slowly warming up across Canada.

It is annual recruitment time for the EC Jumping Committee. I'm happy to report that we've attracted a great slate of candidates to populate the openings on our committee. This is absolutely critical. The Jumping Committee must represent our hunter/jumper stakeholders and make recommendations to EC about all things related to the discipline. Following the voting process held at the end of March, the new committee members will start their terms on April 1, 2023.

What a win for Canada on March 4 in the Nations' Cup in Wellington, FL! I hope many of you had an opportunity to watch and cheer on our athletes, either in person or via the livestream. The all-star team of Erynn Ballard, Mario Deslauriers, Tiffany Foster, and Beth Underhill – led by Ian Millar in his first appearance in the role of chef d'equipe – pulled off an iconic win. Congratulations to all! It marked a fantastic start to the year and is most certainly a sign of more great results to come.

As some of you may have heard, Canadian Show Jumping Team veteran Jonathon Millar sustained a serious head injury following an accident while driving his sport utility vehicle. At the time of writing, he remains in critical condition at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach, Florida. His wife, Kelly, father, Ian, and sister, Amy, have received an outpouring of support wishing Jonathon well. Please join me in keeping Jonathon in your thoughts as he travels the long road to recovery.

Stay safe everyone, and enjoy every minute with your friends, family, and horses.

Karen Sparks
Chair,
EC Jumping Committee

As always, we love to hear from you. Drop us a line at warmupring@equestrian.ca and share your feedback on this issue of the newsletter, or any other thoughts on Canada's hunter/jumper industry.

CANADA WINS NATIONS' CUP IN WELLINGTON, FLORIDA

The Canadian Show Jumping Team won the $150,000 FEI Nations' Cup, presented by IDA Development, held on Saturday, March 4, during the CSIO4* Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL. The win came as 10-time Canadian Olympian Ian Millar of Perth, ON, made his debut as the new Canadian Team chef d'équipe.

A total of 11 countries competed in the annual team event. Following the opening round of competition held in the afternoon, the top eight teams moved forward to compete under the lights in a second round of competition. The Canadian team comprised of Erynn Ballard, Mario Deslauriers, Tiffany Foster, and Beth Underhill were on a score of eight faults as the first round came to an end, as were Brazil and Ireland. Belgium sat at the top of the leaderboard with four faults.

As Canada's lead-off rider, Foster, 38, of Langley, BC, incurred four faults in the opening round and rebounded to post a clear round the second time out riding Hamilton, a 12-year-old Holsteiner gelding (Quadros 3 x Acolord) owned by The Hamilton Group.

Ballard, 42, of Tottenham, ON, had the same scores as her teammate, knocking a rail at a black vertical at fence six before returning to jump clear under the lights with Gakhir, a 12-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding (Spartacus TN x VDL Indorado) owned by Ilan Ferder and Esperanza Imports LLC.

Deslauriers, 58, produced a faultless performance for Canada with two clear rounds aboard Emerson, owned by Wishing Well Farm LLC, in the horse's first Nations' Cup appearance. Deslauriers and the 11-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding (Eldorado van de Zeshoek x Berlin) were one of only two horse-rider combinations to jump double clear over the track set by U.S. course designer Anthony D'Ambrosio with the other belonging to Brazil's Fabio Leivas da Costa aboard Ilex.

Having added nothing to the eight faults collected in the first round, Canada moved into top spot after Belgium was eliminated and Brazil and Ireland both added faults in the second round. With the win already secured, there was no need for Canada's anchor rider Underhill, 60, of Mulmur, ON, who had incurred four faults in the opening round, to return with Nikka van den Bisschop, a 10-year-old Belgian Warmblood mare (Emerald x Nabab de Reve) owned by Rein Family LLC.

"It was a win that our team needed badly, I would say," said Millar. "These four riders and four horses really delivered. The second round had to be executed with precision, and that's exactly what they did. It underscores how strong our team was that Beth didn't have to go in the second round – the other three riders nailed it. It's not so often that the anchor gets a free ride."

The win marked Canada's seventh victory in the Nations' Cup in Wellington, FL, since the team event was first held at the Winter Equestrian Festival in 2002. Finishing behind Canada in second place was Brazil with a total of 16 faults followed by Ireland, also on 16 faults but with a slower combined time. Mexico took fourth with 17 faults while the United States was fifth with 32 faults. Australia was sixth with 32 faults in a slower combined time, Great Britain seventh with 42 faults, and the early leaders, Belgium, failed to finish after both Jos Verlooy and Zoe Conter were eliminated at the wall at fence nine. Argentina, Chile, and Venezuela failed to make the cut for round two, which featured the top eight teams.

"These riders have been my teammates on numerous occasions in the past," said Millar, 76, who retired from international competition in 2019. "They know me as a rider and now they know me as a chef. They were so easy to work with and so receptive to any ideas or suggestions. The word synergy comes to mind."

"It was fun to see it from the other side," concluded Millar. "For almost 50 years, I was one of the riders. I always appreciated the chefs and how much they cared and how much they supported us. Tonight, I feel part of this winning team and it's a great feeling! I'm so proud to be the chef of our Canadian team. I always said that if I ever did it, I would only do it for Canada. I've been offered the position by other countries, but I always said I would only do it for Canada, if ever. And here we are."

Competition in the CSIO4* Winter Equestrian Festival Week 8 concluded on Sunday, March 5, with the $226,000 JTWG Inc. Grand Prix. Underhill was one of only four riders to jump clear and qualify for the jump-off, ultimately placing fourth with Nikka van den Bisschop.

MEET THE NATIONAL TEAM PROGRAM ATHLETES

SUSAN HORN | BOLTON, ONTARIO

By Jennifer Ward

One shot of espresso is all that Susan Horn needs to get through her busy day. With a farm at home and a busy competition schedule on the road, it's a balancing act that Horn has perfected.

Horn's parents were born in Scotland before immigrating to Canada. Her father was from Kintore, just outside of Aberdeen, while her mother hails from Dundee. In fact, her father was born on Kingsfield Road, which the family farm pays homage to with its name, Kingsfield Farm. Fittingly, the farm's logo is a thistle with a crown on top.

Born in Toronto, ON, Horn grew up in the city before moving to Kingsfield Farm, a 130-acre parcel that sits on the border of King and Caledon Townships. While the property is an active organic farm producing soy beans, hay, and honey, Horn has carved out space for a 10-stall barn and indoor arena. Equine residents include a mix of active show horses and retirees. Horn's mom, who rode at the local Pony Club back in Scotland, rides some of the older horses that are not quite ready to retire, including Horn's former junior jumper.

From her early start riding at a YMCA camp, Horn, now 38, made her Canadian Show Jumping Team debut last fall, riding as a member of the Nations' Cup team in Rabat, Morocco, and Vejer de la Frontera, Spain.

What age did you start riding and what was the name of your first pony or horse?

I started riding at age seven at a YMCA camp. I rode a variety of school horses before I got my first pony, Brandy – Keepsake was her show name – when I was 11. I rode at Eglinton Equestrian Center when it had a riding school. I started showing with my coach from there, and then started on the 'A' circuit with Randy Roy in 1999.

In 2004, I wanted to focus more on jumpers, so I moved to ride with Margie Gayford before spending eight years working with Mac Cone. Ready for a new challenge, I started riding with Leslie Howard in Wellington, FL, for a season but when Covid hit, the U.S.-Canada border situation made things difficult. During the pandemic, I approached Ian and Amy Millar with a young horse, and they did a lovely job. In 2021, I asked them to take me on, and I now train with Millar Brooke.

You are currently named to the Jumping National Team Program 'B' Squad with Dominka van de Lucashoeve. How long have you been partnered together, and what are your goals with her for the 2023 season?

I got Dominka at the end of the 2019 season and we hit it off quickly. We only got started and had to stop due to the pandemic. I was lucky to have two team appearances in Morocco and Vejer de la Frontera last year and would love to have another crack at that. My goal is always consistency; I want to go into a class feeling confident that I can produce a clear round by being prepared, understanding what the course designer is asking us to do, and then executing the plan. I one day hope to represent Canada at a major championship.

I've also got some exciting young horses coming up. I have a lovely Chacco-Blue mare named Chacco's Clou PS that looks promising, and a bay gelding named Chicago 195 that is just starting to jump some bigger tracks. I've recently had an older horse re-join my string after some time off, KS Coradina. She jumped her first FEI class since 2021 in March at the Winter Equestrian Festival. She is the scopi-est horse I have ever ridden and also the toughest, having overcome two major colic surgeries. I'm very excited to have her back jumping again.

What is your favourite competition memory?

My first FEI Grand Prix win with Lillyfee in 2018 will always stick out as a special moment for me. Jumping clear for Canada in Morocco last fall with Dominka is also right up there. That would be a big one. And at last year's Royal, ending up third in the Canadian Championship with a new partner, Kirlo van den Bosrand, and qualifying for the international division which had been a long-term and elusive goal. I had only been riding Kirlo for six months at that point. He came from Abdel Said and Sam Hutton. I tried him the very last Sunday of WEF Week 12, and we did a whirlwind horse deal as he was booked to fly back to Europe that Thursday!

What is your favourite horse show venue to compete at?

It's got to be the Royal. You have to say the Royal if you're from Toronto. It's a hometown crowd, and it's a tradition. I remember going and watching Ian Millar and Margie Goldstein when I was younger. I remember seeing Ian's retirement tour there with Big Ben. It is a tradition to go to the Royal.

Which competition is still on your bucket list?

Everyone's bucket list has to include Aachen (Germany). Just the atmosphere and the field alone would be something to experience. Galloping on the beach at La Baule (France) would also be a bucket list moment.

What is your dream vacation?

I would love to see an older European city where everything is walkable with cobblestone streets that are beautiful and worn. I studied urban geography at the University of Toronto, and I love seeing how cities, over time, impact the people that live there and vice versa.

Cats or Dogs?

Cats. No pause on that one. I only have one; I'm not a crazy cat lady. Her name is Ziggy, she's a tabby that is 16 this year. She comes to all the horse shows and is well-travelled.

Last show you binge-watched?

I guilty-pleasure watched The Mandalorian. I downloaded Disney+ just to watch it. I like the original Star Wars movies and I kept hearing about it so thought I would check it out.

What are the three most used apps on your phone?

Instagram, Safari, and iTunes. I try not to be on my phone too much, but I do like anything that helps make my phone a mobile office.

Favourite motto or saying?

"The harder you work, the luckier you get."

What three things are always in your fridge?

Milk so I can make a cappuccino or latte with a shot of espresso to start my day, chopped fruit or veggies so I can eat healthy while on the go, and some cans of beer from a local brewery. And, of course, ingredients for a dinner I'm never going to find the time to make.

If you could ride any horse in the world, past or present, which one would you pick?

I would love to have a go on Cardento. (Editor's Note: VDL Cardento 933 was ridden by Sweden's Peter Eriksson at the 2002 World Equestrian Games and 2004 Athens Olympics.) In my career I have had four horses sired by Cardento. We bred Lillyfee to him, and now have an eight-year-old named Carrick KF. Three of my other horses – Dominka, Kirlo, and Zahara S – are by him as well, and Coradina is a granddaughter.

What's one thing most people don't know about you?

People are always surprised by my taste in music. No one expects me to listen to hard-core metal and punk. I grew up on Green Day, which was a gateway to harder, more intolerable stuff. I've been listening to a lot of Alexisonfire lately.

IAN MILLAR HONORED WITH INAUGURAL INTERNATIONAL AWARD

Ten-time Canadian Olympian Ian Millar of Perth, ON, was recognized as the inaugural recipient of the International Award during the Show Jumping Hall of Fame's Induction Gala held on Sunday, March 6, in Wellington, FL.

"While induction into the Hall of Fame is for Americans who have had a significant impact on the sport, we wanted to recognize some of the great international riders who also impact show jumping in this country," said Show Jumping Hall of Fame Chairman, Peter Doubleday. "With that in mind, we initiated our new International Award and we felt that there was no more worthy candidate to be the initial recipient than 'Captain Canada,' Ian Millar."

Millar is the most decorated equestrian in Canadian show jumping history. A two-time World Cup Final champion having won back-to-back titles, he has competed in 10 Olympic Games, more than any athlete in any sport. He was awarded the Order of Canada in 1986, named Ontario's Athlete of the Year in 1989, and holds an honorary doctorate from the University of Guelph. Millar was inducted into the Jump Canada Hall of Fame in 2012 and, together with longtime partner, Big Ben, was inducted into the Canadian Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

Inducted at this year's Show Jumping Hall of Fame Induction Gala, held at the Wanderers Club, were award-winning rider, trainer, and course designer, Anthony D'Ambrosio, and internationally respected official and clinician, Linda Allen.

ERYNN BALLARD TO REPRESENT CANADA IN OMAHA

When the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup North American League standings were finalized at the end of March, the top two Canadians in the overall standings were Mario Deslauriers with 20 points and Erynn Ballard with 18 points earned throughout the qualifying season. While Deslauriers, the 1984 World Cup champion, declined the invitation, Ballard accepted her invite to the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final. Canada receives a total of two invitations to the annual indoor event, this year taking place in Omaha, NE, from April 4 to 8, 2023.

It will mark Ballard's World Cup Final debut. The 42-year-old athlete from Tottenham, ON, will take two horses to contest the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final. Gakhir, her mount for the 2022 World Championships in Herning, Denmark, will make the trip along with Hero. Both horses are owned by Esperanza Imports, LLC in partnership with Ilan Ferder.

"World Cup Finals will mark my fourth time representing Canada at a major championship and my very first time at World Cup Finals," said Ballard, who represented Canada at the 2018 World Equestrian Games, 2019 Pan American Games, and 2022 World Championships. "It will also be my first time representing Canada as an individual. Being an indoor championship, it is going to be a very different experience, but I think both Hero and Gakhir are ready to produce a big result!"

Erynn Ballard and Gakhir will contest the 2023 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final.
